Collective Worship Policy

Aims and objectives

As a Church of England school all collective worship is set in the context of the school's mission statement and aims. The aim is that worship is central to the life of the school and of the highest quality enabling pupils to appreciate their own worth and value in the eyes of God and to celebrate and pray as a community. All worship is inclusive and supports those of the Christian faith, those of other faiths and those of no faith.

The objectives of worship are to offer children opportunity to:

- to explore and reflect the Christian values of the school;
- to learn the vocabulary of worship and prayer and to experience a variety of forms of worship appropriate to their age and aptitude;
- to celebrate and give thanks for their own gifts, talents and achievements;
- to reflect and to explore the nature and being of God as expressed in the Christian religion;
- to celebrate Christian festivals and holy days and to appreciate the common concerns of all people by sharing some festivals of the other world faiths;
- to develop an awareness and appreciation of the inner self and the spiritual dimension of life;
- to participate and lead worship in different contexts, including church services and the school Eucharist.

The legal position of Collective Worship

A daily act of collective worship takes place for all registered pupils. The act of collective worship has a sense of occasion and is separate and distinctive from an assembly.

Parents/ carers have the right to withdraw their children from collective worship on grounds of conscience, but need to recognise that in a church school worship is not confined to one particular time of the day or place. Those wishing to exercise this legal right should make their request in writing to the head teacher.

Teaching staff are expected to attend collective worship as required and may be asked to support pupils in presenting worship as part of their duties. Staff are expected to take an active part, modelling prayer etiquette and joining in with hymns.

Children need not necessarily meet together as a whole school, but can worship in any size group, in any place and at any time of the day.

The School Committee, particularly those appointed by the Diocese are responsible for arrangements concerning collective worship in consultation with the head teacher. The head teacher is required to implement the governors' policy.

Organisation of worship

Daily collective worship normally takes place in the morning, and follows this pattern:

Monday	Whole school worship led by the head teacher
---------------	--

Tuesday	Whole school worship led by staff (Musical/ Roots & Fruits)
Wednesday	Class worship led by class worship teams.
Thursday	Whole school worship led by a member of the clergy
Friday	Whole school celebration worship led by the Headteacher

Visiting speakers are invited to lead collective worship throughout the year. They may come to share their Christian Faith or to speak on a particular topic that reflects Christian Values and Social awareness.

Act of worship

The children are expected to enter the hall silently whilst a piece of music is played. A candle is lit and the Liturgical greeting e.g. 'May the Lord bless us and keep us,' or 'The Lord be with You' is used to demonstrate that the act of worship has commenced. This is also reference to the Trinity as the candle is lit. Following this there is usually a story/ media clip, a period of reflection, a prayer and a hymn. The worship ends with the school Christian vision saying. The candle is extinguished and the pupils leave the hall silently whilst music is playing. The Worship Council lead Collective Worship or parts of Collective Worship wherever possible.

Pattern of whole school worship for major festivals in church

The Christian festivals celebrated in our local church (St Michael with St Thomas), and which year group leads these, can be seen below.

Harvest	Year 5
Christingle	Year 6
Nativity	Year 1 & 2
Ashing of the Cross	Led by Clergy and worship teams
Easter	Year 4
Pentecost	Year 3

Worship themes

Worship themes are based on the Christian Values the school focuses upon. These are displayed in each classroom, and in the school hall.

Weekly themes also follow the Christian year and, where appropriate festivals from other world faiths.

The pattern of worship is sufficiently flexible to allow the school to react to unforeseen events.

Material is given to staff to support them when they lead worship.

Monitoring and evaluation of worship

Monitoring and evaluation is ongoing, three or four times each half term, two children are invited to evaluate the act of worship that day. These are analysed by the worship co-ordinator and shared with the school committee annually. If some observations or ideas are appropriate for immediate adoption they will be implemented.

The pupil Worship Teams are also asked for their observations about the collective worship that takes place. They are encouraged to make improvement suggestions.

Staff are encouraged to feedback their responses to worship opportunities, via a questionnaire. Staff overseeing major religious celebrations in church are encouraged to try new material and then analyse impact for consideration for future use.

The collective worship lead and link governor meet on a regular basis to discuss worship, evaluate materials, and identify successes and areas for development. This monitoring and evaluation feeds into the school improvement plan.

Parent/ carer and staff rights

Parents/ carers have a right to request that their child / children are partially or wholly withdrawn from any act of collective worship and / or corporate worship. If they do withdraw their child/ children they are responsible for providing an alternative activity during the act of worship.

All staff are asked, before the offer of a post is made, if they are prepared to attend collective worship. They have a right to decline to lead worship.
